

	DOCTORATE IN SYSTEMIC PSYCHOTHERAPY. COMPLETED DOCTORAL THESES
Suzanne Guregård	Open Dialogue Across Cultures. Establishing a Therapeutic Relationship with the Refugee Family
Melissa Adams	Adolescence and Attachment Revisited - An exploration of the AAI as a clinical tool with adolescents and their families"
Ana Draper	Constructions of Parental Childhood Bereavement.
Per Jensen	The Narratives which Connect... A Qualitative Research Approach to the Narratives which Connect Therapists' Personal and Private Lives to their Family Therapy Practices.
Alfred Hurst	Systemic Therapists' Use of Self-Disclosure in Therapy
Anne Oefsti	Some Call it Love. Exploring Norwegian Systemic Couple Therapists' Discourses of Love, Intimacy and Sexuality
Reenee Singh	The Process of Family Talk Across Culture
Yoko Totsuka	Young people's perspectives on family life: Experience of parental mental illness and admission to psychiatric hospital
Charlie Azzopardi	Maltese's Couples Expectations of Marriage
Gwyneth Down	Understanding Roles and Relationships in the Care of Ill Children – A Systemic Analysis.
Charity Tawodzera	A Study of Women's Experiences of their own Sexual Identity Development
Sharon Bond	Exclusion of Black Boys of African heritage in the British Education System – Can Systemic Consultations Make a Difference?
Roar Flatebø	“On knowing much and knowing little.” An exploration of case discussions of child protection teams
Cally Farrell	Constructing realities – constitutive factors of culture and context in stories of substitute mothers to girls whose biological mothers have died of AIDS in Zimbabwe
Amanda Jones	The process of change in parent-infant psychotherapy
Enid Colmer	Parents, parenting and mental health: Exploring parents' concerns about their children.
Sheelagh Wright	Palatable Differences. An exploration of the development of anorexia nervosa within the context of the twin relationship.
Jeanne Ziminski	Negotiating Entitlements in Kinship Care
Barry Mason	The Development of a Relational Approach to the Understanding, Treatment and Management of Chronic Pain.
Ross Parsons	A Process Study of Systemic Psychotherapy with Self Harming Adolescents in Zimbabwe.
Bernadette Wren	Patterns of thinking and communication in families where an adolescent has atypical gender identity development